

RUSSIA CLAIMS LAST VICTORY

St. Petersburg Dispatches Say That Port Arthur Is Free on the Land Side Now.

IS VLADIVOSTOCK ALL SHUT IN?

Paris Has a Dispatch with This Fact Stated--Koreans Cut the Japanese Telegraph Lines--Late War Gossip.

[Special by Scripps-McLae.]
St. Petersburg, May 10.—A dispatch received today says that Port Arthur is again free on the land side and that the Japanese have been repulsed in an encounter twenty kilometers from the railway.
Cut Japs' Wires.
London, May 10.—The Tokyo correspondent for the Central News reports that Koreans in Russia's pay have cut the Japanese military telegraph line north of Hamyang in the province of Korea. Three hundred Russians captured at Yalu river fight have arrived in Tokio.

At Vladivostok
Paris, May 10.—Messages from St. Petersburg this morning deny the report current yesterday that the Russian cruiser Rurik was destroyed. Dispatches mention the persistent rumor that is current in the Russian capital that Vladivostok has been cut off on the land side.

Japanese Report
Chefoo, May 10.—Port Arthur is now closely invested by land and the whole of the Liao Tung peninsula, with the exception of Port Arthur, is in the hands of the Japanese. The capture of Dalny gives the Japanese a base at the very gates of the beleaguered fortress and it is believed here means the fall of the Russian stronghold within a very short time. Siege guns are said to be on the way to Dalny and, unless the Russian garrison is stronger than it is believed to be, Port Arthur cannot hold out against a combined sea and land attack.

There has been a hasty withdrawal of all the Russian garrisons south of Hai Cheng and Oku's army is marching rapidly north, meeting with no opposition. Already they are in possession of Hai Cheng, but if so it will hardly be more than an effort on the part of the Russians to check the Japanese advance and give Gen. Kuropatkin an opportunity to carry out his plans for the concentrations of the Russian army at Liao Yang.

Jap Movements in Doubt
The Japanese armies which fought the battles about Kiu Lien Cheng and which landed at Takushan are pressing steadily northward. Kuropatkin's main force is reported to be within fifty miles of the Russian base with the direction of Yampo. A small detachment of Japanese infantry and cavalry has occupied Kwandianshan. Attempt on Kronstadt.
Berlin, May 10.—The Lokal Anzeiger today says that Admiral Bireloff, commanding the garrison at Kronstadt, has confirmed the report of a daring attempt to destroy the fortress at that place. It is not known whether the plotters were Japanese or Russian revolutionists. Preparations are being taken to prevent any recurrence of the attempt.

Cossacks at Song Chin
Seoul, May 10.—A party of Cossacks arrived today at Song Chin, south of Hamyang province. They are believed to be reconnoitering in anticipation of a Japanese advance on Vladivostok.

Hurry Troops to Kuropatkin
St. Petersburg, May 10.—Reinforcements are being hurried to Gen. Kuropatkin.
The last stage of the mobilization of the Tenth and Seventeenth Army corps has been signaled by the callretreating troops when it was learned that Admiral Alexieff had been wounded just before his escape from Port Arthur. There is much speculation as to the nature of the victory's injuries. One report states that he was struck on the head by a heavy piece of wood splintered by a shell and that he may die of his wounds.

Disease Wipes Out Troops of Czar
St. Petersburg, May 10.—An urgent telegram has been received from Mukden asking for the immediate dispatch of 100 doctors. Typhus fever, dysentery and small pox have assumed an epidemic character among the Russian troops. Hundreds of the czar's soldiers have already died of the diseases and hundreds more are stricken.

Alexieff Forced Northward
St. Petersburg, May 10.—Viceroy Alexieff has telegraphed to the emperor announcing the transfer of his headquarters to Harbin. It is expected that Gen. Kuropatkin will remove to Mukden. Rear Admiral Jessen's squadron is at Vladivostok.

Deny Capture
London, May 10.—The Reuter Telegram company has a dispatch from St. Petersburg stating a semi-official telegram from Mukden denies Dalny is captured. The admiral also declares the report of the destruction of the cruiser Rurik is false. Reports of appearance of the enemy at Kwandianshan on the Mukden road causes some disquiet. If the Japanese could get on this road above Hamyang the Russian position there would be threatened.

Another Fight
London, May 10.—A telegram from Shanghai says a serious action has taken place between the Japanese and Russian forces south of Liao Yang in Manchuria, and the Russians are falling back. Liao Yang is on the railway between Mukden and Port Arthur.

More Reserves Called
St. Petersburg, May 10.—The imperial ukase issued today calls on the government reserves of Poltava, Kursk, Kharkoff, Ryazan, Kaluga and Tula. A Mukden dispatch says that the Japanese patrols from Fenghuang Cheng have been observed in the direction of Yampo. A small detachment of Japanese infantry and cavalry has occupied Kwandianshan.

Attempt on Kronstadt
Berlin, May 10.—The Lokal Anzeiger today says that Admiral Bireloff, commanding the garrison at Kronstadt, has confirmed the report of a daring attempt to destroy the fortress at that place. It is not known whether the plotters were Japanese or Russian revolutionists. Preparations are being taken to prevent any recurrence of the attempt.

Cossacks at Song Chin
Seoul, May 10.—A party of Cossacks arrived today at Song Chin, south of Hamyang province. They are believed to be reconnoitering in anticipation of a Japanese advance on Vladivostok.

Hurry Troops to Kuropatkin
St. Petersburg, May 10.—Reinforcements are being hurried to Gen. Kuropatkin.
The last stage of the mobilization of the Tenth and Seventeenth Army corps has been signaled by the calling out of the reserves in the Moscow and Kharkoff provinces. They will go at once to the front, thus placing another 100,000 men at Kuropatkin's disposal.

The announcement of the mobilization of four army corps along the Volga, which will follow in July or August, is expected next month. The reserves of each army corps involve about 20,000 men, an army corps in time of peace numbering 20,000 men and in war time 50,000. An army corps on a war footing includes three infantry divisions of four regiments, each of three battalions, a division of cavalry, consisting of three regiments of six squadrons each; one Cossack regiment, a brigade of field artillery and a brigade of horse artillery of 120 guns, and also three detachments of engineers and sappers.

Reduces European Force.
By the departure of these troops the Russian European army will lose six out of thirty-one army corps. The previous drafts of troops from European Russia had been formed into Siberian rifle battalions, without changing the organization of the emperor's forces on this side of the Urals. The present units will be transferred bodily to Manchuria, retaining their present officers and staffs.

It is officially announced that Kuropatkin's headquarters will remain at Liao Yang. He has no intention, at least for the present, of retiring from his position there.

The swift march of events at the theater of war, the virtual abandonment by the Russians of all their advanced positions along the Manchurian littoral, has created a feeling of apprehension which the authorities contend is unwarranted.

Blame Zassalitch.
While not attempting to minimize the importance of the advantages gained by the enemy in the occupation of the Liao Tung peninsula and the advance from the Yalu river, the general staff nevertheless declares that if it had not been for Gen. Zassalitch's rash stand at the Yalu the retreat and concentration of Gen. Kuropatkin's army on its normal lines of defense would have been regarded as a masterly piece of strategy.

At the general staff the one dominant idea is that recent developments make it certain the war will be long and bitter. It is said that 500,000 men would have been required to hold southern Manchuria. The real truth seems to be that Gen. Kuropatkin has not more than 200,000 men south of Harbin, and he is determined to pursue the plan which he mapped out at first—to allow the enemy to follow him into the heart of Manchuria until strong enough to assume the offensive.

No Searchlight at Port Arthur.
Tokio, May 10.—With the capture of Dalny, it is thought the fate of Port Arthur is but a matter of a few days. The electric supply of Port Arthur is, or can be at once, entirely cut off, as it came from Dalny. This will prevent the Russians from operating their searchlights, and will enable Admiral Togo's fleet to approach as close as it pleases to the channel without the fear of detection.

STANLEY DIED THIS MORNING

Noted African Explorer Passed Into the Great Beyond at His London Home.

HE WAS KNOWN THE WORLD OVER

Had Been Knighted by Queen Victoria--Fought in the American Civil War on Both Sides.

[Special by Scripps-McLae.]

London, May 10.—The distinguished African explorer, Sir Henry Morton Stanley, died at his home No. 2 Richmond Terrace, White Hall early this morning. A fortnight ago Sir Henry, who has been in a weak state for some months past, had a chill which resulted in a severe attack of pleurisy, with complications verging on pneumonia. His medical attendance, Dr. Russell, after a visit yesterday afternoon, issued the following bulletin:

"Sir Henry Stanley is sinking." No further bulletin was issued until early this morning, when his death was announced.

Up to a late hour last night Sir Henry's condition remained unchanged and a crisis was not immediately anticipated.

Lady Stanley was with her husband when he passed away.

Henry Morton Stanley, generally recognized as the greatest of modern explorers, has had one of the most romantic of careers. Of obscure Welsh parentage, educated in charity school, and not even certain of the exact date of his birth, he shipped early in life as a cabin boy to America. His name at that time was John Rowlands, but the captain of the vessel, Henry M. Stanley, took a fancy to the boy and, adopting him, bestowed his name upon him. When the skipper died, his property went to his nearest of kin, and all the young Welshman inherited was the name which he made famous.

The ship landed at New Orleans, and young Stanley remained in the south. When the civil war broke out he joined the confederate army, was taken prisoner at Pittsburg Landing, escaped and swam a river in a raft of bullets. After a visit to England he returned and joined the United States navy. Because of his bravery he became an officer.

After the war he resigned, leaving his ship at Constantinople, and, after some exciting adventures in Syria, returned to America. He became a war correspondent, accompanying an expedition under General Hancock against the Sioux. Then he went to Abyssinia for the New York Herald.

In 1860, having attracted the favorable attention of James G. Gordon, he was received with distinguished honors. The queen sent him a golden snuffbox set in diamonds, and the Royal Geographical society awarded him its patron's medal.

He afterwards made three other expeditions to Africa, furnishing the geography of the world with several valuable maps, promoting commerce and advancing civilization. The last expedition was for the relief of Emin Bey, whom he found on the Albert Nyanza in 1888. His published books about his travels, lectured in England and America, was knighted by Queen Victoria and ran for parliament; his first attempt to enter the house were unsuccessful, but in 1895 he was elected for North Lambeth.

He married Miss Dorothy Tennant, an artist, under whose inspiration he sought and won political honors.

final and complete success are matters of history. No definite news of Livingstone had been heard for more than two years; Stanley set out and reached Zanzibar in 1871. # METHODISTS DISCUSS ALL PHASES OF THE CENSURE Attempted Attack Upon the Roman Catholic Church in the Los Angeles Convention Foiled.

Los Angeles, Cal., May 10.—According to reports current, the sub-committee on the effectiveness of bishops has reported in favor of the retirement of at least four of the present bishops at the conference of the Methodist Episcopal church. Among those to be retired will be John H. Vincent, the founder and present head of the Chautauque society, at the age of 73.

The others to be retired are Bishop Andrews, aged 79; Bishop Malan, aged 75, and Bishop Waldron, aged 73.

A heated argument took place in the general conference of the Methodist Episcopal church regarding the attitude of the Roman Catholic church toward the public school system in the United States. While there was a disposition on the part of certain delegates to have the conference adopt resolutions committing it to extreme utterances on the subject, there was an overwhelming sentiment against such action, and the matter was finally disposed of by referring it to a committee, from which it will probably never be reported.

Criticism Catholic Church.

Rev. J. R. King, secretary of the Church Extension Society of Philadelphia, presented a resolution strongly criticizing the Roman Catholic church, declaring that "its efforts to control the secular press, its influence in politics and its assaults on the public school system demand the vigilance of Protestants and patriots."

When Dr. King had finished there was commotion among the delegates. Many sought to gain recognition from the chair in order to reply. Charles H. Lohr, chief justice of the Delaware Supreme court, lay delegate, was recognized. After agreeing with Dr.

"But are we to gain anything by any phase of denunciation against any other Christian body?" (Cries of "No," "No.")

"The Roman Catholic church has done a magnificent work in this country. It has taken hold of a class of people whom perhaps no other form of religion could have molded so well for the well being of our common land. I feel like putting my hands under every evangelizing agency in this world that helps to uplift men and not pull them down." This expression was received with applause.

Divorce Resolution.

Judge Shiley of Ohio offered an important resolution on the subject of divorce. He wanted paragraph 30 of the discipline changed to read as follows:

"No divorce, except for infidelity, final desertion, or cruelty or neglect, such as to compel an innocent partner to separate from the offender, shall be regarded by the church as morally lawful, and none of our ministers or laymen shall solemnize marriage where there is a divorced wife or husband living unless the divorce was granted upon grounds hereinbefore specified. But this regulation does not apply in cases where divorced parties are seeking remarriage."

This resolution was also referred to the committee on the state of the church.

If a colored bishop is to be named by the present conference it now seems to be practically settled that the man will be the Rev. J. W. E. Bowen, professor of systematic theology in the Gammon Theological seminary of Atlanta, Ga.

WILL EXPERIMENT WITH TOBACCO

STATE TO CONDUCT A NUMBER OF INVESTIGATIONS.

MANY ACRES NEAR JANSVILLE

Crops Will Be Especially Treated, and the Results Noted with Much Interest.

The state agricultural experiment station at Madison will conduct a series of experiments with tobacco this year in various parts of the state. The work will be under the direction of Alfred C. Erickson of Cambridge, who has been engaged in the tobacco industry all his life. The work will be principally experimenting with fertilizers, in order to get one which is just suited to tobacco. Ten acres will be devoted to the work at Janesville. Three acres will be on the S. B. Hollister farm and seven acres at Millard Calkins. Each of these areas are to be divided into one-acre plots and a different fertilizer tried on each. At Westby also there will be three acres and the same of Soldiers Grove. One acre of the land at Soldiers Grove will be used for growing seed and another portion will be covered with canvas and the tobacco grown under it as is the common practice in the Connecticut valley.

Last year six acres of land was devoted to the work at Janesville and the trial was such a success that it was decided to continue it on a larger scale this year. Careful records will be kept of all the work and next winter after all the tobacco has been taken off the poles and inspected as to its quality a bulletin will be published on the subject.

Raising Plants. Mr. Erickson is now busily engaged in raising his young plants in the green houses at the horticultural building. A half-acre on the university farm will be devoted to the work this year and five different varieties will be planted.

Out in Africa. Arthur C. Erickson of Cambridge, Dane county, uncle of A. C. Erickson, who went to Central Africa in February, 1903, to introduce tobacco growing there, is now on his way home. He was there in the interests of the English syndicate and was entirely successful in his work. The first area planted was 10 acres, from which nearly eight tons of tobacco was harvested. This was sold to the natives for 75 cents and $1 a pound. The second crop is now ready for harvesting.

Work Done. The work was all done by the natives under the direction of Mr. Erickson. He was the only white man within 150 miles from his work and had to live among the natives in one of their huts. He writes home that he has had great experiences in hunting big game, such as hyaenas, eland cows and deer. Mr. Erickson has already returned to England but will travel extensively through Europe before returning to Dane county the latter part of next month.

COLUMBIA OPERA CO. OPENS ENGAGEMENT

Before a Fair Sized and Enthusiastic Audience at the Myers Theatre.

A fair sized audience greeted the Columbia Opera Co. in their opening production, "Girolo-Girolo" at the Myers theatre last evening. The comic situations kept the spectators in a continuous happy mood and the solo parts as well as the singing of the chorus pleased. "The Mikado" will be presented this evening. "The Chimes of Normandy" will be put on at the Wednesday afternoon matinee.

Hyomel Success In Janesville

Cured Many Serious Cases of Catarrh. King's Pharmacy and The Peoples Drug Company Will Refund Money if It Fails.

No other medicine or treatment for catarrh has ever achieved such quick and remarkable success in Janesville as Hyomel. The fact that King's Pharmacy and The Peoples Drug Company, when they first introduced Hyomel sold it under a positive guarantee to refund the money in case it did not cure contributed largely to its successful introduction. A guarantee from firms like King's Pharmacy and The Peoples Drug Company gave people confidence at the start. Those who obtained a Hyomel outfit found that the treatment did all that was claimed for it; that the first few breaths of Hyomel cleared the air passages and gave an exhilarating and invigorating effect. Its continued use freed the system from all catarrhal germs, soothed and healed the mucous membrane, and made a complete and lasting cure.

Compared with the dangerous stomach dragging that had been used heretofore in the treatment of catarrh the balsamic air of Hyomel created a most favorable impression. And the medicine itself did even more than was claimed for it. In fact, to make a successful cure nearly every case of catarrh in which it was used, for every outfit was sold on a guarantee to refund the money in case it failed. It had not possessed unusual merit, an offer like this would have resulted in an enormous loss. But curing as it did, Hyomel soon gained an enviable reputation and made many friends who recommended it far and near. Its success here in Janesville has been remarkable, and King's Pharmacy and The Peoples Drug Company are still selling it on their personal guarantee to refund the money in case it does not give satisfaction.

ANOTHER PRIZE STORY PUBLISHED

Florence M. Spooner Will Receive Dollar for the Following Tale

Blanche's Blunder (A true story with a slight change in names.) "Say, Blanche, why is it you are forever making mistakes? Now isn't this a pretty mess. Here we are four miles from the house, due at eight o'clock wedding and its seven-fifty now. It's all on account of your being so positive about that turn at the corner."

Blanche and Albert Freeman were invited to their best friends' wedding, Sarah Alnoworth to Burton Howe, Bert and Sarah had been bestman and bridesmaid at the Freeman wedding two years before, and now had been invited on Albert and Blanche being present at their great event.

Sarah's home was about six miles from town, and in writing the directions to Blanche she had been very particular about distance and direction. Blanche had carefully put the letter away for reference, but at the last moment had forgotten to take it along. On arrival at Otters Corners she was sure it was to turn to the left and a short drive of one mile would land them at the Alnoworth farm.

Albert had his doubts, but as there was no place in sight to inquire and Blanche was so positive, he turned to the left and drove on.

At the first farmhouse he had gone in to inquire if they were on the right road. An old German with a stock of sand-red hair answered his knock and inquiry. "Oh, yah, Mester Alnoworth, he love about zewen miles from here." "Then this is the right road, is it?" asked Albert. "Oh, yah, yah. His been der right road all right road all right." So they drove on for another half hour and saw no place answering Sarah's description.

Freeman met a farmer on his way from town, and as he turned out to pass him he made one more inquiry as to how far it was to John Alnoworth's farm. The man laughingly replied, "Just about twenty-five thousand miles the way you are goin'." I reckon, mister. If you want to get there in the shortest time, you had better turn around and go the other way. It's only about four miles that way. When you get back to Otters Corners it's the third house on the left hand side of the road. Just about four miles. Your welcome, sir. Glad, Billy."

To say Albert was made would put it lightly. He was boiling after his effort to get to the wedding and lose on such a blunder.

When Alnoworth's was finally reached the ceremony was over and the guests were just seated before a sumptuous banquet that in a measure atoned for the long drive.

Mr. Albert declared that hereafter he will know full directions before starting on any journey with Blanche.

ARE AGAINST ANY CHANGE OF NAME

Committee of the Episcopal Church Will Oppose the Movement.

The committee of fifteen which was appointed by the national triennial convention of the Episcopal church at San Francisco in 1901, to consider the advisability of changing the legal name of the denomination, has prepared an extended report, in which the opinion is expressed that any change at this time is inexpedient. The report is to be submitted to the general convention, which will assemble in Boston next October.

At the San Francisco convention, the diocese of Milwaukee presented a memorial requesting that the name "Protestant Episcopal church in the United States" be changed to that of the "American Catholic church in the United States." The request was not acted upon directly by the convention, but a committee of 5 bishops, 5 priests, and 5 laymen was appointed to ascertain the mind of the church and report to the Boston convention.

There are three appendices to the report. The first appendix to the report is signed by Bishops Daniel S. Tuttle of Missouri, George W. Poterkin of West Virginia, David H. Greer of New York, the Rev. S. S. Moore of Parkersburg, Va.; Arthur J. C. Sowdon of Boston, Francis A. Lewis and Joseph Packard.

They observe that the present name can hardly be considered as a hindrance to growth, since all growth has been in connection with the name. With respect to the objection that the Catholic character of the church is obscured in the eyes of other Catholic communions by the name, it is said, "our relations with the Old Catholics have not been strained by reason of the title, and in view of the late pope's denial of the validity of our orders, a mere change of name is not likely to change the attitude of the see of Rome toward us."

FIRE OF UNKNOWN ORIGIN IN BEHLING RESIDENCE

Caused Damage of About $150 Shortly After Eight O'clock Last Night.

Fire broke out on the second floor of the Charles Behling residence at 253 Linn street shortly after eight o'clock last evening. Bedroom furniture and fixtures were damaged to the extent of $150 but these are covered by an insurance policy of $1,500 on the house and contents. The fire department did not resort to the use of hose but extinguished the flames with the chemical engine. The cause of the blaze was unknown.

Game Was Postponed: Manager Herman Kath and his Clinton Maroons visited Precourt Sunday but the game which was to have been played with the Illinois team was postponed until Sunday next on account of the rain. Roy Palmer will be in the pitcher's box at that time.

AMONG THE WORLD'S WORKERS

News Notes From Various Sources of Great Interest to the Workingman.

A large number of Fall River cloth manufacturing corporations are now considering plans to shut down during a large part of May and June unless trade conditions improve. A bout 15 factories have decided to stop Fridays and Saturdays until further notice, but as Tuesday is a holiday it is estimated that at least 25 corporations operating 60 mills with 2,000,000 spindles will curtail production part of the time until Wednesday. Upward of 20,000 operatives will be affected.

No less than eleven labor conventions will be held throughout the country in May. The first is the convention of the United Cloth Hat and Cap Makers which began in New York city on May 1. The first annual convention of the American Federation of Musicians ever held in New York will begin on May 16. The other conventions are as follows: Amalgamated Lumber Operators of America, Wilkes-Barre, Penn., May 1; National Brotherhood of Operative Pattern, Trenton, N. J., May 2; Amalgamated Association of Iron and Steel Workers, Union, Cleveland, May 3; Brotherhood of Railway Employees of America, St. Louis, May 3; Amalgamated Meat Cutters and Butcher Workmen of America, Cincinnati, Ohio, May 8; Order of Railway Telegraphers, Buffalo, May 8; Hotel and Restaurant Employees, International Alliance, Rochester, May 9; International Association of Tube Workers, Boston, May 11; International Brotherhood of Paper Makers, Niagara Falls, May 24.

A general shutdown of the silk mills in Paterson and other parts of New Jersey and in Pennsylvania is threatened as a result of the scarcity of orders for the fall trade. The manufacturers talk of closing their mills next month and not resuming operations until September unless business revives, a contingency which they now scarcely expect. No concerted action is to be taken, but it is said that the conditions are such that practically all the mills will be obliged either to curtail production much more than at present or shut down entirely.

ASSESSORS ARE AGAIN AT WORK

Preparing the Tax Roll for the Levy in December and January—Many Transfers To Be Traced.

City Assessors Conrad and Davies are now at work on the assessment roll on which taxes will be paid in Janesville next December and January. They will devote their attention for some time to the listing of the real estate and all transfers made during the year will have to be taken into consideration. After they have finished with the real estate the work of assessing personal property will begin.

The state tax commission has mailed to the county clerks of each county copies of a recent publication of special instructions to assessing officers on the mortgage taxation law, chapter 378 of the laws of 1903. The publication was issued because of the innumerate letters of inquiry received from local officers, showing that the meaning and scope of the new mortgage taxation law was widely misunderstood and likely to be grossly misinterpreted. The commission has also mailed copies of a 90 page pamphlet of instructions to assessors, and board of review.

DANE COUNTY HAS WEIRD PRISONER

Can Produce Anything But Money To Pay His Fine From the Empty Air.

Sheriff R. J. McWatty and the Dane county jail officers have custody of a six month's prisoner whose ability to produce anything and everything before their eyes, excepting money enough to pay his fine and keys to the steel barred doors, has caused more sleepless nights than all the Pat Flaherty's and Ed. Pats ever lodged behind those old bars. Clarence Alceze Nathan, a Hunk with a classical education and said to be of East Indian race, is confined in jail for six months in default of a fine for $100 and costs imposed by the municipal court upon a plea of guilty to a charge of having unlawful relations with a young lady of this city named May Godling. Minus all paraphernalia Nathan built green growing trees upon the cement floor of the corridor brought five squirring snakes down out of the branches, and plucked sweet-smelling flowers of various hues from the branches, greatly to the amusement of the vagrants, drunks and wife-beaters who formed his temporary associates and to the enervating of Sheriff McWatty. Nathan says he might also produce money for fun and use but for the prejudice of the federal authorities. Nathan is 37 years of age, stands 4 feet 10 inches in height, weighs 95 pounds, has the swarthy dark skin of his race and wears long wavy locks of hair upon his shoulders. He was last with Ringling Bros, circus giving exhibitions as a magician and has been in Madison about four months reading palms for whatever price he could collect. His clientele has been mostly of the fairer sex, an infatuation with one of whom led to his present predicament.

Work of Bible Society. The first foreign venture of the British Bible Society was to have part of the New Testament translated into Mohawk by a chief with the extraordinary name of Tiyonohokarawan, but who finally reduced it to Nelson and became a British officer and fought this country in the war of 1812.

LA FOLLETTE IS LOSING DAILY

ASHLAND COUNTY SWINGS INTO THE CONSERVATIVE CAMP.

BROWN COUNTY GIVES ELEVEN

Former La Follette Stronghold Divides Its Delegations Giving the Anti's Eleven Votes.

If the voice of the people counts for anything before the state central committee La Follette lost Ashland county and its twelve votes in the coming state convention yesterday. By a narrow margin of votes, fourteen the twelve votes of Ashland county, claimed by the La Follette element, voted for an anti delegation headed by a member of the state central committee. Apparently content with this decision of the will of the people the fourteen La Follette men accepted the action of the convention and adjourned with them. Later word came from Madison and at five o'clock a rump convention was held and twelve delegates pledged to La Follette were chosen. They were not given credentials but will go before the state central committee, at the behest and call of La Follette and to have their delegates seated. The La Follette men tried the name game in Dodge county and lost the convention they saw they were beaten in and trust to the state central committee to seat the bolters.

Eight out of nineteen delegates in Brown county went for the governor despite the valiant work of the lieutenant sent to watch the caucuses at Green Bay. In fact Governor La Follette lost more yesterday than he gained as Brown has always given him a solid delegation in the past. There are 1,065 delegates in the convention of which 533 are necessary for a choice. Thus far 887 have been chosen of whom La Follette has but 425 including one district in Eau Claire county which may come into the anti column as soon as the county convention is held. Candidates Baensch and Cook have together 462 votes. There are 178 delegates yet to be chosen.

Statement of P. L. Spooner. There have been held thus far caucuses in counties entitled to 887 delegates in the state convention, to be held on May 18. Of these 471 have been elected for Judge Baensch and the Hon. S. A. Cook, and for Gov. La Follette 416. There remains to be elected 178 delegates. Of these La Follette must elect 116 and Baensch and Cook sixty-two to control the convention by vote of 556 to 509. It is believed that of the delegates credited to Gov. La Follette at least twenty-five will not endorse his proposed methods of securing control, and that in the final round-up the vote will be about 581 to 484 in favor of the opposition to the governor and a third term.

ANOTHER POEM BY MISS ELENORE

Not One of Shakespeares Masterpieces, Just a Few Simple Verses.

An epic poem is grand and glorious if properly written. Homely subjects are often made beautiful under the master hand of a true artist. Virgil in his Aeneid told of the petty matters in the wandering Aeneas and made them beautiful. The following poem entitled Potatoes in Rock County is by Elenore. A short time ago the Gazette published one of these spontaneous combustions and the Milwaukee Sentinel, copied with the heading Poems One Ought to Forget. What they will do or say it is a stolen poem of Pope or an unpublished bit of verse of Shakespeare would be hard to figure at the present time. However the poem is given below and the reader can pass judgment upon it. Words not fully understood or not interpreted can be looked up in some dictionary.

Potatoes in Rock County. They grow potatoes small in Rock county— Small, indeed, and half of them spoil. It may be the seed, or it may be the farmer. It may be the fault of the soil.

When a lady has ordered up a bushel Then asks "What are they today?" "A dollar and a half," and she sighs hopelessly. When such a price she's obliged to pay.

But the higher the price the better things are; At least that is when they seem good; But potatoes should never take such a high jump If we had them they never would.

We want them for breakfast with fried beefsteak; For dinner we want them with roast; For supper they're fried in nice fresh butter. We like them indeed this way most.

So we'll plant every one that we can spare; We'll dig them in the fall, on the short bright days When autumn into winter steals. —ELENORE.

TO BUILD A BLOCK ON BLUFF STREET

Francis Grant Will Erect Two Story Structure of Brick, Costing Five Thousand Dollars.

Francis Grant will erect a two story block with a 66 foot frontage on North Bluff street and a depth of 80 feet. The building will be located between North First and Milwaukee streets, will be built of white brick, and will cost when completed about $5,000. James Shearer has been awarded the contract for the masonry and Contractor Wray will have charge of the carpenter work. The ground will be divided into three small apartments to be used for shops and two of these as well as the entire second floor, which is to be used for storage purposes, have been leased by the Janesville Carriage Co. and A. H. Sheldon & Co. The second floor will be so arranged that it may easily be converted into flats should it be deemed advisable at any time.

BREAKS THROUGH ROOF OF JAIL

Greenville Prisoner Imitates Rudolph and Saws His Way to Freedom.

Greenville, Ill., May 10.—Cutting and sawing his way through tin and wood, Jim Crutts made his escape through the roof of Bond county jail. In a fashion Crutts imitated the method employed by Bill Rudolph, who escaped from the St. Louis jail several months ago. With four files, a poker and an improvised saw made of the steel taken from his shoe, a lamp and a rope made of blankets knotted together, Crutts labored from 10 o'clock Sunday night until 4 o'clock Monday morning and then slid down the blanket rope to freedom.

Texas Field Manager Falls When Overcome by Gas. Watson, Tex., May 10.—Harvey Bradley, field manager for Brice & Bradley, fell in a tank of oil and was drowned. He had gone to the top of the tank, which was a 1,200-barrel settling tank, and it is supposed he became overpowered by gas and fell in. The body sank to the bottom and holes were cut in the tank to let the oil escape so men could go into it and secure the body.

GYMNASTIC MEET LAST EVENING

A Large Audience Attended Annual Athletic Exhibition at Y. M. C. A. Last Night.

Last evening at the Y. M. C. A. building the annual gymnastic exhibition was held in which forty athletic young men took part. Physical Director Ward was in charge of the class, and exhibited on some very difficult feats in the athletic line with the well trained members of his class, work in advanced gymnastics, including some of the most difficult movements, requiring the best training of the muscles and general control of the body was put to a test in the several numbers on the program last evening. Len Matthews rendered a solo that was fully appreciated by the large audience present. Otto Dreyer also played several difficult selections on the violin.

The Y. M. C. A. has labored faithfully to maintain and develop an association where men of all classes, regardless of creed, nationality or belief, can meet on a common level with the best influence and equipment for the pleasure and profit of the all-around man in the development of a larger and broader life.

The Cause of Many Sudden Deaths.

There is a disease prevailing in this country most dangerous because so deceptive. Many sudden deaths are caused by it—heart disease, pneumonia, kidney failure or apoplexy are often the result of kidney disease. If kidney trouble is allowed to advance the kidney-poisoned blood will attack the vital organs, causing catarrh of the bladder, the kidneys themselves break down and waste away call by call. Bladder troubles almost always result from a derangement of the kidneys and a cure is obtained quickest by a proper treatment of the kidneys. If you are feeling badly you can make no mistake by taking Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney, liver and bladder remedy. It corrects inability to hold urine and seething pain in passing it, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to go often through the day and to get up many times during the night. The mild and the extraordinary effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases.

Swamp-Root is pleasant to take and is sold by all druggists in fifty-cent and one-dollar size bottles. You may have a sample bottle of this wonderful discovery and a book that tells all about it, both sent free by mail. Address, Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. When writing mention reading this generous offer in this paper. Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

The merchant must have "elbowroom" in his newspaper advertising. Economy of space is not economy at all—it is the other thing.

Fair tonight and warmer Wednesday.

FOR THE CITY

The Beet Sugar Special now in process will be the largest and most complete paper ever issued in the city. The first eight pages will be devoted to the new sugar industry containing cuts of the factory and much valuable information concerning the culture of beets.

Other sections will have to do with the manufacturing and commercial interests, as well as with the schools, Y. M. C. A. and churches. It is intended to make the edition thoroughly representative of Janesville.

It will be published on Tuesday May 24, and will be mailed to every subscriber of both the Daily and Weekly Gazette. Every rural route in the county will also be covered and in addition to this a large number will be mailed outside.

The price for space in this paper, considering the 10,000 copies to be circulated, is cheaper than the price of regular advertising in the Gazette, and is within the reach of everybody. This is not a money making scheme on the part of the paper except through the reflex influence in helping the city. The Gazette believes that Janesville will be benefited by advertising, and if the belief proves true every business in the city will share in the benefits. Every business enterprise in the city should be represented. This does not mean a large investment of money, but it does mean putting every line of business in the hands of 50,000 readers, at a nominal expense. You can talk to more people, for a little money, through the Beet Sugar Special, than in any other medium that was ever sent out from the city.

Are you willing to lend a hand to help Janesville?

POOR MANAGEMENT.

The managers of the St. Louis fair are doubtless well qualified in many respects for the responsible position which they occupy, but that they are novices in the matter of publicity has been apparent to publishers, ever since they commenced operations.

Some two years ago they inaugurated a crusade for free advertising by sending out in weekly installments carefully prepared articles on the Louisiana Purchase, and historical incidents connected therewith.

These articles, which were long and heavy, were mailed to every newspaper office in the country. They represented many tons of printed matter, prepared and mailed at great expense, and they landed in the waste basket as regularly as they came to the office.

After the first installment they were never opened, and yet the management went on printing and sending them out with monotonous regularity.

A three line want ad changed frequently and paid for would have brought some results, at one tenth the cost.

The management appropriated $500,000 for bill poster advertising, but refused to recognize the press and as a result the publishers of the country are not especially interested in the success of the enterprise.

Next week is known as newspaper week at the fair, thousands of newspaper men will be in attendance, and the exposition will be benefited by some free advertising, but this will be spasmodic, and about as helpful as any other one time publicity.

The management has made a mistake and as the fair progresses they will realize it. With $100,000,000 invested in an enterprise of that kind a reasonable appreciation for the best publicity known would have evidenced good business sense to say the least.

DESTITUTE OF GLORY

If a victory comes to the state administration in the contest now going on, it will be a victory without glory, and destitute of honor. It is evident to the most casual observer, that the republican party is not in control and that 70 per cent of its representation is opposed to the third term movement, with all that it represents.

Governor La Follette owes his success to the radical element of the party which is largely in the minority and by the rift of democracy, which supported Bryan in his last campaign. The city of Madison cast over 4,000 votes at the late republican caucuses, when there are less than 2500 republicans in the city. It is safe to assume that more than half the number were democrats.

What is true of Madison, is true of the state at large. The better element of democracy is composed of gentlemen who would not consent to be a party to this class of political scoundrelism.

It is fortunate for La Follette, but unfortunate for the republicans of Wisconsin, that the democratic party is so badly demoralized. There is nothing to hold it together, and the Bryan element, which is in the majority is well satisfied with La Folletteism.

These are the "fair minded" democrats to whom the Governor is wont to appeal. They come from the saloons and various haunts, where a silver dollar looks as big as a cart wheel. There are plenty of republicans of the same class, and when these two elements combine and their numbers are increased by an infatuated following, the constituency is numerically strong.

The man who leads them should be proud of the distinction. It matters not to him that the business and industrial interests of the state are arrayed against him. They amount to nothing when personal ambition is at stake, and that is the only issue presented in the present campaign.

The state may be obliged to submit to two years more of this sort of misrule, but there will come a day of reckoning, as sure as time advances.

The vote already cast shows a change of sentiment that is gratifying and the change will be more pronounced within the next 2 years. The supporters of bonus reform will wonder why they became so infatuated.

'HOW TO GET RICH'

The Sunday Tribune contained a sketch of Russell Sage and a letter from him addressed to young men. Mr. Sage is 88 years old and in spite of his years is still able to attend to his own business. He is a self made American and is worth today $100,000,000. Although a heavy dealer in stocks, he has never been a speculator.

He attributes much of his success to economy, and in his advice to young men he says that a boy should watch the market for bargains in clothing, as closely as a Wall street broker watches the stock market. He says that two suits of clothes is all that any young man needs, and that for summer wear a $7.00 serge suit, and a $3.50 linen suit is an ample wardrobe, and that these two suits with a fifty cent straw hat, are good for two summers. It is said of Mr. Sage that on his way down town one morning, his attention was attracted to a $12.00 suit, in front of a store. He liked the appearance of it so well that he went in and ordered three suits, remarking that they would stock his wardrobe for three years.

There are plenty of young men working on $10.00 salaries, who envy Mr. Sage his wealth, but many of them would consider it a hardship if compelled to follow his advice.

What the Governor should do if he is re-elected and can control the next legislature is to have that august body pass a "Press Gag" law which would not allow the papers throughout the state to publish the truth about his reform movements.

The La Follette delegates from the town of Rock did not show up at the convention yesterday but Uncle Billie Tripp announces his flag is still waving and his mahogany sidewalk still able to be walked upon.

Mr. Host has sued the Milwaukee papers who published what they thought and believed to be true and now the court will decide who got the money.

With Mayor W. A. Jackson in the chair the machinery of the city government will go along as smoothly as ever.

The present pre-convention campaign has been one of the hottest fights that has ever been enacted in the state of Wisconsin.

Now Russia regrets to report that New Chwangski has got to hotel for himself and theyski gonest to Hardsonski to rest.

Germany as a nation and Emperor "Billie" as emperor has been criticized for being so friendly with Russia in the eastern war.

Thirty two decided men will cast thirty-two votes for good old Rock Co. against the governor when the convention meets in Madison.

The republican party is greater than Bob La Follette but it can not beat reform republicans and fair-minded democrats at caucuses.

It would seem as though some republicans any way did not approve of La Follette although the democrats do.

Russia is losing prestige among European nations but if anyone thinks that Japan has a set of toy soldiers why Russia is ready to let them tackle them.

St. Louis is making a great yell over the increased attendance of the fair, over the Chicago white city.

Rock County is in the midst of the throes of the La Follette republican democrats these days.

PRESS COMMENT

Milwaukee Sentinel: After this week the game wardens and factory inspectors will be given a rest for a few days—and they will need it. No army on a forced march ever suffered more from fatigue.

Chicago Tribune: Col. Pope's contention that bicycling fell off because manufacturers quit advertising, and that the way to revive it is to resume the advertising, appears to be based on correct business principles.

Superior Telegram: The Japanese have 3,000 gods while the Russians have only one. The Japs are depending principally upon keeping their powder dry and shooting well, however.

Milwaukee News: Every tick of the clock brings the world nearer to the happy moment when the political jig will be up in Wisconsin, and the farmers will have leisure to plant corn instead of burying the opposition.

Ashtabud Press: The wily Russians are luring the Japs into the interior of Siberia, in a manner similar to that in which the small boy who has been robbing an orchard lures the old man into the wood-shed.

Fond du Lac Commonwealth: A valued Fox river valley exchange contains the somewhat startling headline, "Will Shoot at Green Bay." Just what the city has done to merit being "shot at," the article fails to explain, and as the caucuses have not yet been held in Brown county it is difficult to guess.

Oshkosh Times: An English jurist has decided that a wife's jewels are her husband's property, and a Pennsylvania court notifies wives that their husbands' pay envelopes belong only to the husbands. Women, however, still have an undoubted right to appeal to the court in suits, which usually allows her all she craves for.

Menasha Record: We are hearing a great deal about the governorship, but where is the man who is to stand for Lieutenant governor, the strong and worthy man who is not alone to be an able presiding officer of the senate, but the acting governor when called upon. He should be fully equal to the governor. Where is he?

La Crosse Chronicle: "Jim" Hill is going to sell out because the merger suit went against him, and Russell Sage is going to move out because he is obliged to pay his taxes. It really isn't right to put these poor fellows to so much annoyance.

Green Bay Advocate: "There has been considerable music to face in Green Bay of late and the community is beginning to feel the need of a softer and more soothing kind. These balmy spring days make us think of summer evenings and band concerts when we sit in the recesses of shady parks with our best girls and enjoy the pulsations of the hand music and the other pulsations which they inspire.

La Crosse Leader-Press: The announcement that Mr. Hearst had captured the state of Illinois ought to be a potent lesson to those democrats in Wisconsin who have treated the Hearst movement with derision merely, and have imagined they could sit supinely and have this state send an "uninstructed" delegation to St. Louis. It is an eloquent demonstration of the necessity of having a definite purpose and a candidate if the desire to prevent Mr. Hearst's nomination is sincere.

Chicago Record-Herald: One of the baseball pitchers has succeeded in shutting out an opposing team without a hit and without permitting a player to reach first base. That same baseball pitcher, who has had a successful career of about ten years on the diamond, never gets drunk, and as far as is known has never possessed the belief that it is a great thing to be a hoodlum.

Cincinnati Commercial Tribune: China is not the only restless neutral.

Tai An's Imperial brother, the Kaiser, is giving symptoms of spilling for a light on some ostensibly good pretext. The inability of the Chinese government to restrain the anti-Russian feeling in the empire may be conceded, and so may the unwillingness. But, in either event, the restlessness of the Kaiser is becoming apparent and the necessity for the preservation of German colonial interests in the province of Shantung will be the pretext, when the time comes, for landing German troops on Chinese soil.

Earl Clark, Leader: The bird students and lovers of Earl Clark are getting more numerous year after year, and already the birds have found it out and are thankful accordingly. Even the boys are beginning to hunt the birds with opera and lead glasses rather than sling shots and guns. There is an increased demand for bird books at the library. It is of interest to note the names of the twenty-six birds most common. They are Chimney Swift, Purple Finch, Barn Swallow, Bobolink, Yellow Warbler, Wood Thrush, Golden Crowned Kinglet, Chickadee, Ruby Throated Humming Bird, Catbird, Red Eyed Vireo, Oriole, Red Winged Blackbird, Cedar Bird, Blue Jay, Downy Woodpecker, Flicker, American Robin, Bluebird, Song Sparrow, Black and White Warbler, House Wren, American Goldfinch and Chipping Sparrow.

RAILROAD MANAGERS TO CURTAIL EXPENSES

Thousands of Employees Will Be Discharged in June, to Reduce Cost of Operation of Lines.

New York, May 10.—Orders have gone out from the headquarters of each of the big railroad systems to curtail expenses. The gradual falling off in freight traffic since April 1 has prompted railroad directors in every part of the country to insist upon a rigorous economy in maintenance and operating departments.

Traffic managers expected a moderate shrinkage in the volume of freight shipments during this spring, but the losses in earnings, have been very much heavier than was looked for, and reductions in dividends are threatened unless expenses of railway operation can be reduced in proportion to the loss of traffic.

The Vanderbilt lines have taken the lead in cutting down expenses. President Newman has ordered a thorough "weeding out" in the maintenance and clerical departments. Between 1,000 and 1,500 employees will be discharged next month by the New York Central, and there will be about 750 unfortunate on the Lake Shore lines.

The economies on the Pennsylvania lines, both east and west of Pittsburgh, will result in the dismissal of not less than 5,000 men.

"Conditions are growing worse instead of better," said a railroad official, "and it is now up to the railroads to reduce expenses by considerably more than $10,000,000 if they expect to avoid trouble when the next dividend quarter comes around."

Plans $300,000 Actors' Fund. West New Brighton, S. I., May 10.—At the second anniversary of the Actors' Fund home Heinrich Conrad explained his plan to levy a tax of 10 cents on each complimentary ticket. This would guarantee an annual income of $300,000.

MUSINGS.

Being out of debt is the best thing out.

When a woman loses her temper she shows her age.

Lots of people come to grief by meeting trouble halfway.

A dressmaker says that fitting a dress is a more matter of form.

Fish may be all right as brain food if a man isn't born a fool to start with.

About the time love lets up on a man rheumatism takes a fall out of him.

Shortly after getting the political bee in his bonnet the average man gets it in the neck.

If all women who look back were turned into salt pillars the streets would be full of statues.

Any old room in a hotel is good enough for a bridal chamber. The occupants never look at the furniture anyway.

THE NOMINEES FOR ASSEMBLY

NAMED AT THREE DISTRICT CONVENTIONS THIS MORNING.

IN BEHALF OF A. S. BAKER

Entire 1st District Convention invited to dinner at Grand—Pliny Norcross and W. O. Hanson Nominated.

Three assembly district conventions of the republican party placed their nominees on the ticket this morning. That for the first district, held at the courthouse, nominated A. S. Baker of Evansville. Out of the fifty-three votes cast Mr. Baker received 33 and A. C. Wilder, also of Evansville, 20. The second district convention met at the city hall and nominated Capt. Pliny Norcross. The third district placed W. O. Hanson of Beloit in nomination at the convention held in the Linc city simultaneously with the two Janesville assemblies.

The Second District
W. A. Jackson called the assembly convention for the second district to order at the city hall at eleven o'clock this morning. After the call had been read and the credentials and proxies of the delegates examined A. E. Matheson was made chairman and F. A. Capelle, secretary. H. F. Bliss placed the name of Capt. Pliny Norcross in nomination for assemblyman and his candidacy was approved by acclamation. He accepted the honor with a very pleasing address. W. J. Wagoner was appointed on the committee to draft resolutions. An assembly committee consisting of J. L. Bear, and Charles M. Warren of Janesville, and Wilson Martin of Harmony was appointed.

Roosevelt and Quarles
The resolutions reported by the committee for the second assembly district warmly endorse President Roosevelt and Senator Quarles. The first district adopted the same resolutions and the senatorial convention this afternoon also adopted them. An additional tribute to Senator Whitehead which is given in another column. The text of the assembly resolutions was as follows:

Theodore Roosevelt, the scholar, the soldier, the statesman, and, over and above all, the American citizen whose ideals inspire and help his fellow citizens of all classes to appreciate and to strive to maintain the best there is in both private and public life, occupies the chief place in the thoughts of Rock county republicans as they gather in senatorial convention. They believe that, having succeeded to the office of chief magistrate of the republic under the most trying circumstances incident to the untimely death of President McKinley, he has shown himself worthy of all the honor and equal to all the demands of that exalted station. We enthusiastically favor him for the presidential nomination to be made in Chicago in June, and we anticipate with the highest pleasure the triumph which he will achieve, both in the popular and in the electoral votes. Thus will the American people testify to the nations of all the world that "he serves his party best who serves his country best."

Joseph V. Quarles, born on Wisconsin soil, whom, as a man, neighbor and citizen we know, admire and trust, gifted and experienced statesman, our junior United States senator, who, in that highest legislative body of the republic is recognized as a leader, both in thought and in action, him the republicans of the second assembly district of Rock county, in convention assembled to nominate a candidate for the assembly heartily congratulate on his public service to his state and to the nation, and to him and to none other, do they look as his own successor.

First District
The first assembly district convention was called to order at eleven o'clock by T. S. Nolan, republican county chairman, who read the call. W. A. Clark, Milton, member of the executive committee, assisted in examining the proxies. L. C. Whitte of Edgerton was made chairman and A. L. Richardson of Milton was made secretary. S. M. Crow of Union placed in nomination for assemblyman the name of A. S. Baker of Evansville. He characterized his candidate as a workingman, a man of the people, and a consistent republican. D. F. Heddles of Evansville seconded the nomination. F. W. Gilman of Evansville nominated A. C. Wilder of Evansville. The chair appointed as tellers: D. F. Heddles, Janesville; W. W. Clark, Milton, and W. T. Pomeroy of Edgerton.

The whole number of votes cast on the informal ballot was 53 of which A. S. Baker received 33 and A. C. Wilder 20. By a motion the informal ballot was made formal. In behalf of the nominee who is abroad at present C. E. Lee of Evansville thanked the convention for the nomination and paid a high tribute to Mr. Baker dwelling briefly on his services to his country in the civil war and his humble start in life with the little blacksmith shop after the war was over. In behalf of A. S. Baker Mr. Fred A. Baker invited every member of the convention to dinner at the Grand Hotel.

The chair appointed the following assembly committee: D. F. Heddles of Evansville, L. A. Richardson of Milton, and Henry Ebbett of Edgerton.

THE CHICAGO MARKET REPORT

Interesting Gossip from the Closing Reports of the Windy City's Mart.

Wheat.—Until the publication of Illinois and Washington government crop report wheat was selling around 88c but liquidation by people who did not carry their wheat over today caused a rather weak undertone and a loss in prices, although declines were not much under yesterday's close. Market was fairly active with Armour again taking a leading position on buying quite freely but in aggregate selling more than they bought. There was a fair commission trade but locals were not doing much until near close. News was very mixed in character. Crop situation has become bearish except in Ohio valley, foreign news was also bearish although cables show considerable firmness.

Corn.—Market acted heavily all day although at best advance a slight reaction over yesterday's close. This was wholly in sympathy with early strength in wheat and on buying by commission houses. Some good cash business was done. Late break in wheat had much effect on corn and there was very little support to market on decline. Corn that came out during day was principally long stuff. Cables fairly strong and receipts small. Weather conditions favorable for planting.

Oats.—Local people were fair sellers and this combined with weakness wheat and lack of support caused moderate weakness and lower prices. There was early selling on larger receipts and later buying on some cash business done with east. Lake navigation situation is having some effect on market.
Provisions.—Corn houses sold pork freely today and this caused weakness in all products, although market acted heavy from opening. Brokers were free sellers during day and there were not many products wanted. Shorts were about best buyers. Market closed easy at decline. Hog situation was moderately bullish. THE HADDEN-RODGE CO.

CURRENT NEWS NOTES

Was It a Whale? Some terrible monster of the deep seized the building into the waters of Lake Koshkonong by Harry Morse yesterday while he and a party consisting of James Buchanan, John Fletcher, and Alex Buchanan were fishing from a boat, and according to accounts which these voracious citizens have learned to repeat without blushing, towed them over the greater portion of the lake. It was believed to have been a fish.

WHITEHEAD WAS ONLY CANDIDATE

ALL OPPOSITION TO HIS NOMINATION SWEEP AWAY.

SALMON'S TELLING SPEECH

Speaks of Narrow Escape of the Country From a Reign of Backdoor Politics.

Pursuant to the call of the Rock county republican committee the state senatorial convention met at the courthouse at three o'clock this afternoon to place in nomination a republican candidate for state senator. W. F. Carle of Janesville was made chairman and W. O. Hanson of Beloit secretary of the convention. Senator John M. Whitehead was nominated by E. P. Salmon of Beloit and selected as the candidate without opposition to serve his district for a third term.

Record Is Endorsed
Resolutions endorsing President Roosevelt and Senator Quarles were framed and adopted and in addition to this, approval of Senator Whitehead's record was expressed in the following words:
John M. Whitehead, who has not been subservient to any interest, but who has labored faithfully for his constituents, impartial, able, industrious, and public-spirited course in the state senate for eight years. The shafts of abuse and misrepresentation have not disturbed or harmed him. He has calmly pursued the way of duty and service, unmoved by adverse criticism. He has patiently left the answers to attacks upon him to his constituents. We are pleased to express our satisfaction with his course and our implicit confidence in him as our representative. We pledge the support of the republicans of Rock county and the 22d senatorial district to him as our candidate for state senator.

Backdoor Politics
Mr. Salmon in his nominating speech spoke of Whitehead's splendid record as senator and told of the escape this county and district had from "backdoor politics." His address to the convention was very excellent and he severely arraigned the manner in which the campaign against the senator was conducted. Senator Whitehead made a short address to the delegates after his nomination.

WERE WEDDED AT HIGH NOON TODAY

William Edwin Smith and Miss Susie Segers United in Marriage by Rev. J. A. Richey.

William Edwin Smith and Miss Susie Segers, both of this city, were united in marriage at 12 o'clock today, the ceremony being performed at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Segers, 16 North High street, Rev. J. A. Richey officiating. A large number of relatives and friends of the bride and groom were present. The bridal party marched from the library to the parlor where under a beautifully decorated green arch the officiating clergyman pronounced them man and wife, while Mrs. W. T. Decker, presided at the piano and rendered the Mendelssohn march in a most accomplished manner during the ceremony. The young couple were attended by Frank Smith as best man, brother of the groom, and Miss Ethel Wood, a niece of the bride, acted as bridesmaid.

At the conclusion of the ceremony an excellent wedding dinner was served in the dining room, which was elaborately decorated with cut flowers and potted plants. The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Segers, and it is not too much to say that she enjoys the respect of all who know her. She is a true lady in every sense of the word, and by her amiable disposition, as well as her admirable qualities, make her an ideal helpmate. The groom whose home is in this city is a popular engineer on the St. Paul road, and is known and respected all along the line. He has friends almost without number, his pleasant disposition and force of character always commanding immediate appreciation. The newly married couple will make their home with the bride's mother on North High street in this city. Their many friends extend to them the heartfelt congratulations and wish them a long and happy life. Those who attended the wedding from out of the city were: Mr. and Mrs. C. E. The bishop of the Philippines, who was for years a missionary in Japan, says: "Today the Japanese are a nation without a religion. Buddhism, the question of its theoretical value being laid aside, is no longer able to inspire; whatever it may be as a philosophy, as a religion it is dead."

The New Myers is a Busy Place These Days—Opens on Thursday Night.

With the formal opening of the New Myers hotel but two days away Manager Donnelly and his sister, Mrs. McNeill, are two of the busiest persons in Janesville. From top to bottom the hotel has been refurnished and re-decorated and is now ready for the new guests. The whole structure and from the top floor to the basement where the carpenters are busy laying new floors and placing the new elevator in readiness all is hustle and bustle. To persons who have not seen the hotel since it was closed the change will be wonderful.

Top to Bottom
Every floor, every room, every hall has been papered and painted freshly and new comfortable looking furniture installed. Among the many changes made is the doing away with the old inside blinds and the establishment of new shades and dainty curtains. New carpets to match the paper on the wall with comfortable iron or brass beds and easy chairs are in every room. It has been no half-way work and when the hotel is formally opened by the grand ball and general inspection of the house Thursday evening the great changes will be appreciated by those who knew the house in the past ten years.

"The

Filigree Ball

By ANNA KATHARINE GREEN,

Author of "The Mystery of Agatha Webb," "Lost Man's Lane," Etc.

Copyright, 1903, by the Bobbs-Merrill Company

"I must go over at once!" he cried, leaping again to his feet and looking about for his hat. "It is my duty to make them feel at home; in short, to put the house at their disposal." Here he found his hat and placed it on his head. "The property is mine now, you know," he politely explained, turning, with a keen light in his gray eye, full upon me and overhauling me with the grand air of a man who has come unexpectedly into his own. "Mrs. Jeffrey's father was my younger brother—the story is an old and long one—and the property, which in all justice should have been divided between us, went entirely to him. But he was a good fellow in the main and saw the injustice of his father's will as clearly as I did, and years ago made one on his own account bequeathing me the whole estate in case he left no issue or that issue died. Veronika was his only child; Veronika has died; therefore the old house is mine and all that goes with it—all that goes with it."

There was the miser's gloating in this repetition of a phrase sufficiently expressive in itself, or rather, the gloating of a man who sees himself suddenly rich after a life of poverty. There was likewise a callousness as regarded his niece's surprising death which I considered myself to have some excuse for not noticing.

"You accept her death very calmly," I remarked. "Probably you knew her to be possessed of an erratic mind."

He was about to bestow an admonitory kick on his dog, who had been indiscreet enough to rise at his master's

First move, but his foot stopped in mid-air in his anxiety to concentrate all his attention on his answer.

"I am a man of few sentimentalities," he coldly averred. "I have loved but one person in my whole life. Why, then, should I be expected to mourn over a niece who did not care enough for me to invite me to her wedding? It would be an affection unworthy the man who has at last come to fill his rightful position in this community as the owner of the great Moore estate. For great it shall be," he emphatically continued. "In three years you will not know the house over yonder. Despite its faded ghosts and death-dealing fireplace, it will stand 'A1' in Washington. I, David Moore, promise you this, and I am not a man to utter fabulous prophecies. But I must be missed over there."

Here he gave the mastiff the long delayed kick. "Ridge, stay here! The vestibule opposite is icy. Besides, your howls are not wanted in those old walls tonight even if you would go with me, which I doubt. He has never been willing to cross to that side of the street," the old gentleman went on to complain, with his first show of irritation. "But he'll have to overcome that prejudice soon, even if I have to tear up the old hearthstone and reconstruct the walls. I can't live without Ridge, and I will not live in another place than in the old home of my ancestors."

I was by this time following him out. "You have failed to answer the suggestion I made you a minute since," I hazarded. "Will you pardon me if I put it now as a question? Your niece, Mrs. Jeffrey, seemed to have everything in the world to make her happy, yet she took her life. Was there a taint of insanity in her blood, or was her nature so impulsive that her astonishing death in so revolting a place should awaken in you so little wonder?"

A gleam of what had made him more or less feared by the very urchins who dogged his steps and made sport of him at a respectful distance shot from his eye as he glowered back at me from the open door. But he hastily suppressed this sign of displeasure and replied with the faintest tinge of sarcasm:

"There! You are expecting from me feelings which belong to youth or to me."

HAIR TELLS CHARACTER.

Color of Hair Said to Indicate a Person's Temperament.

Many people believe that blonde, or light hair denotes affection and dark hair constancy. A person without hair is not devoid of character, far from it. The disposition of the average bald-headed man is to show such solicitude for the welfare of others, that he neglects himself. A germ causes baldness. Prof. Sabouraud, of Paris, France, has caused a rabbit with Dandruff germs, causing it to become totally bald in five weeks' time. To rid the scalp of these dangerous germs it is necessary to apply Newbro's Herpicide.

men of much more heart than understanding. I tell you, that I have no feelings. My niece may have developed insanity or she may simply have drunk her cup of pleasure dry at twenty-two and come to its dregs prematurely. I do not know and I do not care. What concerns me is that the responsibility of a large fortune has fallen upon me most unexpectedly and that I have pride enough to wish to show myself capable of sustaining the burden. Besides, they may be tempted to do some mischief to the walls or floors over there. The police respect no man's property. But I am determined they shall respect mine. No rappings up or tearings down will I allow unless I stand by to supervise the job. I am master of the old homestead now and I mean to show it. And with a last glance at the dog, who uttered the most mournful of protests in reply, he shut the front door and betook himself to the other side of the street.

As I noticed his assured bearing as he disappeared within the forbidding portal which, according to his own story, had for so long a time been shut against him, I asked myself if the candle which I had noticed, lying on his mantelshelf was of the same make and size as those I had found in my late investigations in the house he was then entering.

CHAPTER VI.

NEXT morning the city was in a blaze of excitement. All the burning questions of the hour—the rapid mobilization of the army and the prospect of a speedy advance on Cuba—were forgotten in the engrossing topic of young Mrs. Jeffrey's death and the awful circumstances surrounding it.

Though I was the hero of the hour and, as such, subjected to an infinite number of questions, I followed the lead of my superiors and carefully refrained from advancing any theories beyond the obvious one of suicide. The moment for self exploitation was not ripe; I did not stand high enough in the confidence of the major, or, I may say, of the lieutenant of my own precinct, to risk the triumph I anticipated ultimately by a premature expression of opinion.

I had an enemy at headquarters; or, rather, one of the men there had always appeared peculiarly interested in showing me up in the worst light. The name of this man was Durbin, and it was he who had uttered something like a lightning remark when on that first night I endeavored to call the captain's attention to some of the small matters which had offered themselves to me in the light of clues. Perhaps it was the prospect of surprising him some day which made me so wary now as well as so alert to fill my mind with all known facts concerning the Jeffreys. One of my first acts was to turn over the files of the Star and read the following account of the great wedding. As it is a sensational description of a sensational event, I shall make no apology for the headlines which startled all Washington the night they appeared:

"STARTLING TERMINATION OF JEFFREY-MOORE WEDDING."

The Traditional Doom Follows the Opening of the Old House on Waverley Avenue.

One of the Guests Found Lying Dead on the Library Hearthstone.

Letters in His Pocket Show Him to Have Been One W. Pfeiffer of Denver.

No Interruption of the Ceremony Follows This Ghastly Discovery, but the Guests Fly in All Directions as Soon as the Nuptial Knot Is Tied.

"The festivities attendant upon the wedding of Miss Veronika Moore to Mr. Francis Jeffrey of this city, met with a startling check today. As most of our readers know, the long closed house on Waverley avenue, which for nearly a century has been in the possession of the bride's family, was opened for the occasion at the express wish of the bride. For a week the preparations for this great function have been going on. When at an early hour this morning a line of carriages drew up in front of the historic mansion and the bridal party entered under its once gloomy but now seemingly triumphant portal, the crowds, which blocked the street from curb to curb, testified to the interest felt by the citizens of Washington in this daring attempt to brave the traditions which have marked this house out as solitary and by a scene of joyous festivity make the past forgotten and restore again to usefulness the decayed grandsons of an earlier time. As Miss Moore is one of Washington's most charming women and as this romantic effort naturally lent an extraordinary interest to the ceremony of her marriage, a large number of our representative people assembled to witness it, and by high noon the scene was one of unusual brilliancy."

"Hails which had moldered away in an unbroken silence for years echoed again with laughter and palpitated to the choicest strains of the Marine band. All doors were open save those of the library—an exception which added a pleasing excitement to the occasion—and when by chance some of the more youthful guests were caught peering behind the two Corinthian pillars guarding these forbidden precincts the memories thus evoked were momentary and the shadow soon passed.

"The wedding had been set for high noon, and as the clock in the drawing room struck the hour every head was craned to catch the first glimpse of the bride coming down the old fashioned staircase. But five minutes, ten minutes, a half hour, passed without this expectation being gratified. The crowd above and below were growing restless when suddenly a cry was heard from beyond the gilded pillars framing the library door, and a young lady was seen rushing from the forbidden quarter, trembling with dismay and white with horror. It was Miss Abbott of Stratford Circle, who in the interim of waiting had allowed her curiosity to master her dread and by one peep into the room, which seemed to exercise over her the fascination of a blue-beard's chamber, discovered the outstretched form of a man lying senseless and apparently dead on the edge of the hearthstone. The terror which instantly spread among the guests shows the hold which superstition has upon all classes of humanity. Happily, however, an unseasonable panic was averted by the necessity which all felt of preserving some sort of composure till the ceremony for which they had assembled had been performed. For simultaneously with this discovery of death in the library there had come from above the sound of the approaching bridal procession, and cries were hushed and beating hearts restrained as Miss Moore's charming face and exquisite figure appeared between the rows of flowering plants with which the staircase was lined. No need for the murmur to go about: 'Spare the bride! Let nothing but cheer surround her till she is Jeffrey's wife!' The look of joy which irradiated her countenance and gave a fairytale aspect to her whole exquisite person would have deterred the most careless and self-centered person there from casting a shadow across her pathway one minute, sooner than necessity demanded. The richness of the nuptial veil which covered her features and the natural timidity which prevents a bride from lifting her eyes from the floor she traversed saved her from observing the strange looks by which her presence was hailed. She was consequently enabled to go through the ceremony in happy unconsciousness of the forced restraint which held that surging mass together.

"But the bridesmaids were not so happy. Miss Tuttle especially held herself upright simply by the exercise of her will, and, though resplendent in beauty, suffered so much in her anxiety for the bride that it was a matter of small surprise when she fainted at the conclusion of the ceremony. "Mr. Jeffrey showed more composure, but the inward excitement under which he was laboring made him trip more than once in his responses, as many there noted whose minds were not fixed too strongly on flight.

"Only Dr. Auchincloss was quite himself, and by means of the solemnity with which he invested his words kept the hubbub down, which was already making itself heard on the outskirts of the crowd. But even his influence did not prevail beyond the moment devoted to the benediction. Once the sacred words were said, such a stampede followed that the bride showed much alarm, and it was left for Mr. Jeffrey to explain to her the cause of this astonishing conduct on the part of her guests. She bore the disclosure well, all things considered, and once she was fully assured that the unhappy man whose sudden death had thus interrupted the festivities was an intruder upon the scene and quite unknown, not only to herself but to her newly made husband, she brightened perceptibly, though, like every one around her, she seemed anxious to leave the house, and, indeed, did so as soon as Miss Tuttle's condition warranted it.

"The fact that the bride went through the ceremony without her bridal bouquet is looked upon by many as an unfavorable omen. In her anxiety not to impose any longer upon the patience of her guests, she had descended without it."

"The fact that the bride went through the ceremony without her bridal bouquet is looked upon by many as an unfavorable omen. In her anxiety not to impose any longer upon the patience of her guests, she had descended without it."

COUNTY NEWS

MILTON
On Friday afternoon the Palmyra and Milton high schools put up one of the best games of ball played here in many a day, age considered. The home team won by a score of 8 to 3. The Palmyra battery was a good one but the pitcher was weak in fielding his position and his team did not give him good support. The battery of the home team was not any behind, despite the fact that McEwan was a trifle wild, but he had his nerve and curves with him and struck out a goodly number. Clancy got two different hits that would have been star catches for a seasoned player and little Pfeiffer handed down a long one that no one expected him to hold.

The Racine's old horse having become useless and Tim not being able to buy a new one, J. E. Davidson circulated a subscription paper among Racine's friends and secured $50 for the purchase of a work horse for the old gentleman.

He was married to Miss Susananna Roth, Sept. 25, 1860 with whom he lived happily until the time of his death. To the union were born seven children four boys and three girls namely, John, Edwin, Ernest, and Joel, Mrs. Sarah Jameson, Mrs. Henrietta Bishop, Mrs. Emma Acheson, who with Mrs. Setzer are called to mourn. Your Heart
May Be Weak. One Person in Four Has a Weak Heart.
One of the surest signs of a weak heart is shortness of breath after exercise. Your heart is not able to pump the blood fast enough to your lungs. Some of the other symptoms of Heart Trouble are: Pains in the Side, Back and Shoulder; Fainting or Weak Spells; Dry Cough; Swelling of Feet and Ankles; Cold Feet or Hands.
No one can afford to allow a weak heart to go without medicine, because weak heart means poor circulation, and poor circulation means weak lungs, stomach, liver, kidneys, etc.
If, therefore, you suspect heart trouble, begin taking Dr. Miles' New Heart Cure. The Heart Cure will do you good, as it is a splendid tonic for the blood and nerves, and will revitalize your entire system. Finally, remember, Dr. Miles' New Heart Cure is sold under a guarantee that the first bottle will do you good. If it doesn't—your money back.
"I was afflicted with heart trouble for three years. I would be apparently all right, and without a moment's warning would fall as though shot. The attacks were frequent, and a terrible dread possessed me, no matter what conditions I was under, nor under what conditions I would be attacked, and whether I would survive them. I consulted and was treated by some of the most eminent physicians of the state. Not finding relief from this source, I began taking Dr. Miles' New Heart Cure, and began to improve at

POISONOUS INSECTS BATTLE WITH SAILORS

Tarantulas, Centipedes and Scorpions Attack Seamen When Hold of Vessel Is Opened.

Philadelphia, Pa., May 10.—Facing a horde of tarantulas, centipedes and scorpions, the sailors of the bark Anlat Menoth, which arrived here with a cargo of bones, had a nerve thrilling experience.

When the sailors went to the hold, preparatory to getting out the cargo, they discovered swarms of the deadly insects prepared to give battle. The insects advanced toward the seamen, who were forced to retreat. At last, regaining courage, they armed themselves with sticks and tried to beat off their crawling foes, but the latter were too numerous.

As fast as one tarantula was killed, a score took its place. Many of the seamen were nipped on the feet and legs, and only their heavy sea boots saved them from deadly bites. At last they left the hold, leaving the insects in command. Many of the latter followed, but were destroyed as they reached the deck.

At last, the hatches were replaced, and the hold fumigated. This ended the insects.
